It's All Academic
AN ACADEMIC GUIDE TO FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

DIVISION OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES

It's All Academic

Introduction

When the first English settlers came to this region they found hundreds of Native American tribes such as the Euchee, Yamasee, Timugua, Tequesta, and Abalachi. Each tribe was unique, but all were living free. In Maskókî, the core language, istî siminolí meant that they were "free people." English speakers in the area began calling all of these tribes "Seminoles" because they had never been dominated. As one of the many students who have gathered here from all over the state, the nation, and the world, you bring your own unique set of talents and experiences. Here you will join this community of Florida State University Seminoles. Part of what will define you as an FSU

Seminole is our Liberal Studies Program. While the Liberal Studies Program will help you to strengthen the skills and character you bring with you to the campus, it will also allow you to discover new aspects of your character, refine the strength you need to excel in all parts of your life, and develop the skills you will need in the future. Much as the tribes were together defined as Seminoles, what you learn both in and out of the classrooms of Florida State will forever define you as an educated person.

This handbook is titled "It's All Academic" because it is your first exposure to FSU academic policies and procedures. Universities are dedicated to the study and creation of new knowledge. By deciding to enter college, you have chosen to become a member of this academic process, and we welcome you into the research and learning community here at Florida State University.

Getting Started at FSU

Office of Undergraduate Studies

FSU is composed of 14 undergraduate colleges. The head of a college is called a dean. Your Dean's Office is a place to go for information about academic requirements. As a freshman or sophomore (any student with under 52 hours of credit and not admitted into music, film, or a BFA program), your Dean's Office is:

Office of Undergraduate Studies
A3400 University Center
(850) 644 - 2451

The University Center is the building wrapped around the stadium. The "A" section of University Center faces towards the campus and contains many of the offices serving undergraduate students.

The staff in Undergraduate Studies can help you by:

Evaluating transfer credit to see if courses meet some or all of the following requirements:

- Statewide Core
- Liberal Studies
- Campus-wide Composition and Quantitative / Logical Reasoning Requirements
- Multicultural Requirement

Providing "Dean's Approval", understanding, and / or guidance regarding:

- Course overload / underload
- Dropping or adding a course
- Removal or clarification of registration stops
- Illness and other situations affecting academic performance
- Required enrollment in English and Quantitative / Logical Reasoning courses
- Special needs such as academic remediation or learning disabilities

University Bulletin

All of the rules and regulations for FSU are found in a publication called the Undergraduate Bulletin. You may access the Bulletin online at <http://registrar.fsu.edu/>.

FSU Websites

You can find most of the information you need on the FSU websites. They include information about academics, registration holds, financial aid, majors, parking, the Academic Program Guide, and an Academic Requirements Report to check your progress towards graduation. The earlier you become familiar with the resources available to you through these websites, the more convenient it will be to perform tasks related to registration, financial aid, and academic progress.

Main FSU Website

Another useful website is <http://www.fsu.edu/>. You can find a wide array of information on the University here. View "Key Sites" for more useful campus resources.

New 'Nole

The New 'Nole website is designed to be your one-stop-shop for key information you will need to make a successful transition into college life at Florida State University. Please read and use all of the available information in the Academic Life, Student Life, Family Resources, and Post-Orientation sections of this website to help you learn more about college and Florida State University. Visit <http://www.newnole.fsu.edu/>.

myFSU Portal

As a new student, one resource that you may find particularly helpful is the myFSU Portal – my.fsu.edu. It serves as a personalized gateway to all other FSU online resources, including Student Central, Blackboard, and your student email account.

Student Central

Access Student Central by going to myFSU Portal – my.fsu.edu, and selecting “SC” under myFSU Links.

Student Center Tab - Drop-down Tools

Once in Student Central, you may utilize the drop-down tool under the Academics Toolbar to view your Academic Requirements Report (online degree audit), view a What-If Report (compare courses you’ve taken against alternative major requirements), view your “Unofficial Transcript”, and more.

Your FSU Identity Numbers

You have already been assigned FSU identity numbers. These numbers are private so students should not share, post, or display them in public. To access yours, follow the directions below.

Log on to my.fsu.edu.

Click the “Hi, your name” in the top right of your Student Home page, next to “Search myFSU”.

Click the “My Profile” link.

Your Profile information, including your contact information, FSUID and EMPLID appear.

Your Student Directory Information and Right to Privacy

Students may choose at any time to hide all of the data considered student directory information by completing the form accessible at the following link:

http://registrar.fsu.edu/services/acad\_pub/files/PreventPublication.pdf.

Student Directory Information includes: Name; date and place of birth; local address; permanent address; telephone number; classification; major; participation in official University activities and sports; dates of attendance; degrees; honors and awards received; most recently attended educational institution; digitized FSUCard photo.

Delegating Access

You will be able to allow different people to view a sub-set of your academic and financial records. Within your Student Center, there is a “Share my Information” link where you will be able to define “contacts” and allow them access to the information you select. You will need to know the person’s e-mail address. Consider allowing your family to view the following: Make a Payment, View Class Schedule, View Grades, View Unofficial Transcript, View Holds, and Tax Information. For more information on granting access, visit: <http://sc.my.fsu.edu/Students/How-To/Assign-Delegated-Access-to-a-Third-Party> .

Important Deadlines (dates are adjusted in summer terms)

- 4th Day of Classes Drop/Add ends. After midnight you are liable for all course fees.
- 10th Day of Classes Last day to pay fees or make payment arrangements.
- End 7th Week of Classes Last day to withdraw from school without receiving a “W” or “F”.
Last day to drop a class without dean’s permission, unless dropping below 12 hours.
Last day to select the S-U (Satisfactory-Unsatisfactory) grade option.
- End 12th Week of Classes Last day to late drop a class. A grade of “W” will appear on the transcript.

Excess Credit Surcharge

The legislature for the State of Florida has passed a law limiting the number of hours you can take at the regular in-state and out-of-state tuition rates. You will be allowed a certain percentage above the hours required by your degree program. For students entering FSU in 2015, the percentage is 110%. For a typical degree of 120 hours, students will be allowed 132 hours at normal tuition rates after which an additional fee will be assessed. Although all of your AP, IB, and dual enrollment credit does not count towards this maximum, all of your failed, dropped, and withdrawn courses will. There are additional exclusions that may or may not affect you. Your credit will be analyzed and your total hour counter set after the university has received all of your final transcripts. You will be able to monitor this counter in the "My Academics" section of Student Central. For more detailed information, go to: http://registrar.fsu.edu/excess\_hours/.

Academic Dishonesty

Instructors are responsible for reinforcing the importance of the Academic Honor Policy in their courses and for clarifying their expectations regarding collaboration and multiple submission of academic work. Examples of academic dishonesty have been provided for the purpose of illustration and are not intended to be all-inclusive. For more information on the FSU Academic Honor Policy, visit: <http://fda.fsu.edu/Academics/Academic-Honor-Policy>.

PLAGIARISM. Presenting the work of another as one's own (i.e., without proper acknowledgement of the source). Typical examples include: Using another's work from print, web, or other sources without acknowledging the source; quoting from a source without citation; using facts, figures, graphs, charts or information without acknowledgement of the source; utilizing ghostwriting or pay-for-paper services.

CHEATING. Improper access to or use of any information or material that is not specifically condoned by the instructor for use in the academic exercise. Typical examples include: Copying from another student's paper or receiving unauthorized assistance during a quiz, test or examination; using books, notes or other devices (e.g., calculators, cell phones, or computers) when these are not authorized; procuring without authorization a copy of or information about an examination before the scheduled exercise; unauthorized collaboration on exams.

UNAUTHORIZED GROUP WORK. Unauthorized collaborating with others. Typical examples include: Working with another person or persons on any activity that is intended to be individual work, where such collaboration has not been specifically authorized by the instructor.

FABRICATION, FALSIFICATION, AND MISREPRESENTATION. Unauthorized altering or inventing of any information or citation that is used in assessing academic work. Typical examples include: Inventing or counterfeiting data or information; falsely citing the source of information; altering the record of or reporting false information about practicum or clinical experiences; altering grade reports or other academic records; submitting a false excuse for a class absence or tardiness in a scheduled academic exercise; lying to an instructor to increase a grade.

MULTIPLE SUBMISSIONS. Submitting the same academic work (including oral presentations) for credit more than once without instructor permission. It is each instructor's responsibility to make expectations regarding incorporation of existing academic work into new assignments clear to the student in writing by the time assignments are given. Typical examples include: Submitting the same paper for credit in two courses without instructor permission; making minor revisions in a credited paper or report (including oral presentations) and submitting it again as if it were new work.

ABUSE OF ACADEMIC MATERIALS. Intentionally damaging, destroying, stealing, or making inaccessible library or other academic resource material. Typical examples include: Stealing or destroying library or reference materials needed for common academic purposes; hiding resource materials so others may not use them; destroying computer programs or files needed in academic work; stealing, altering, or intentionally damaging another student's notes or laboratory experiments. (This refers only to abuse as related to an academic issue.)

COMPLICITY IN ACADEMIC DISHONESTY. Intentionally helping another to commit an act of academic dishonesty. Typical examples include: Knowingly allowing another to copy from one's paper during an examination or test; distributing test questions or substantive information about the material to be tested before a scheduled exercise; deliberately furnishing false information.

ATTEMPTING to commit any offense as outlined above.

It's All Academic

Earning your Bachelor's Degree

Structure of Degree Programs

A typical degree program requires 120 hours although a few programs require more. Not all degrees will include all of these components, and some programs may allow a single course to satisfy requirements in more than one component. View your Academic Requirements Report in Student Central to see how the courses you have taken meet various degree requirements. To learn more about FSU's Undergraduate Academic Degree Programs, visit: Academic Program Guide.

Mapping

Each major has an academic map with sample schedule to illustrate one of the many ways to satisfy all degree requirements in four years. More important are the Milestones identified for the major. Milestones are courses and/or GPAs that must be achieved by specified points within a student's college career. Students will not be able to change into a major unless they are on-course for the new major.

University-Wide Requirements

FSU requires that all students satisfy a series of graduation requirements. Formative experiences like Internships, Study Abroad, and Garnet and Gold Scholars are strongly encouraged. More information on these University-wide requirements can be obtained from your academic advisor. To view a checklist of requirements beyond your major, visit: Liberal Studies at FSU - <http://liberalstudies.fsu.edu/index.html>

In addition to Liberal Studies, College, Major and Minor requirements, students must complete the following:

- SCHOLARSHIP IN PRACTICE: Scholarship in Practice courses center around the process of creative and scholarly work, with the end result being a scholarly or creative product. The courses provide students with direct experience of what it means to be an architect, biologist or journalist while engaging in a wide variety of approaches to disciplinary problems. Scholarship in Practice courses also allow fields that do not typically have a liberal studies presence, such as engineering and business, to offer opportunities to non-majors. Formative Experiences provide an alternative way to fulfill one of the two required Scholarship-in-Practice courses: students may earn up to three Scholarship-in-Practice credits by participating in faculty-assessed and course-based experiential learning. Students must be concurrently enrolled in an accompanying 0- or 1-credit S/U ("satisfactory / unsatisfactory") course; students who earn an "S" in this course will fulfill one of the Scholarship-in-Practice requirements. Students may earn Formative Experiences credit in one of three ways: study abroad through FSU's International Programs; participate in faculty-supervised research; or participate in a faculty-supervised internship.
- E-SERIES: The E-Series courses focus on broad questions that are relevant to humanity and our natural world and can be explored, examined and experimented upon, thus the "E". The courses are created for non-majors and are designed to allow students to compare multiple perspectives on persistent issues.
- MULTICULTURAL: As an FSU student, it is expected that by learning about cultures around the world and diversity in western culture, you will develop a broader base of knowledge for understanding yourself and the world around you. Therefore, you are required to select two courses, one designated as "cross-cultural studies" (courses marked with an "x") and one designated as "diversity in the western experience" (courses marked with a "y"). These courses must be taken on a letter grade (not S-U) basis. A grade of "C-" or higher must be earned. There are many multicultural courses that also meet major requirements. Some majors, such as business and engineering, prefer students to meet this requirement through Liberal Studies courses. You should ask you advisor how best to satisfy this requirement.
- UPPER-DIVISION WRITING COMPETENCY: All students will be required to demonstrate competency in professional writing by taking upper-division coursework that includes a substantial writing component. This coursework may be completed outside or within a student's major course of study.

- ORAL COMMUNICATION COMPETENCY: Competence in oral communication is indicated by demonstrating the ability to transmit clearly ideas and information orally in a way that is appropriate to the topic, purpose, and audience. It also involves demonstrating the ability to discuss ideas clearly with others, to hear and respond to questions, and to assess critical response appropriately.
- COMPUTER SKILLS COMPETENCY: All undergraduates at Florida State University must demonstrate basic computer skills competency prior to graduation. The specific computer competency skills needed vary from discipline to discipline. Thus, associated with each major is a required course(s) that provides instruction in the discipline-specific computer skills. Students should check with their major department to identify the course(s) designated by the department as satisfying the computer skills competency in the major.
- NATURAL SCIENCE LAB: Students must complete at least one credit hour of a science laboratory.
- FSU RESIDENCY: Student's final 30 units must be completed in residence at FSU.
- SUMMER RESIDENCY: Students who have entered a university in the State of Florida with fewer than 60 hours of credit are required to earn at least nine hours by attendance in one or more summer terms at one of the State University System institutions. Please see your Academic Dean's Office with questions.
- UPPER-DIVISION COURSES: Students must earn a minimum of 45 hours of 3000 / 4000 level coursework. 30 of these hours must be earned at FSU. Only 15 hours of 3000 / 4000 level coursework from another institution may be used toward this requirement.

Statewide Core Requirements

The Statewide Core is a standardized Liberal Studies curriculum required of all college students in the state of Florida. Students must take one Core course from each of the following five areas: English Composition (3 hrs); Quantitative / Logical Reasoning (3 hrs); Social Sciences / History (3 hrs); Humanities and Cultural Practice / Ethics and Social Responsibility (3 hrs); and Natural Sciences (3 hrs). These 15 hours then become a part of the 36-hour FSU Liberal Studies requirements defined in the next section. To view a list of approved Statewide Core Coursework, visit: http://liberalstudies.fsu.edu/LiberalStudies\_StateCore.html.

Liberal Studies

Liberal Studies provides an educational foundation for FSU graduates to thrive intellectually and professionally and to support themselves, their families, and their communities through a broad and critical engagement with the world in which they live and work. These requirements must be completed by every student graduating from FSU. How a student meets Liberal Studies requirements and when they meet the requirements will be different for each student, depending on the major and personal interests. Some majors require all Liberal Studies to be completed by the end of the sophomore year. Others prefer that students take all four years to complete their Liberal Studies requirements. Students must earn a minimum of "C" or higher in two Quantitative / Logical Reasoning courses, two English composition courses, two E-Series courses, and all writing courses. Courses taken on a Satisfactory / Unsatisfactory (S/U) basis will not count towards a Liberal Studies requirement. Students must earn a minimum of 2.0 GPA average in the 36 hours of required Statewide Core and Liberal Studies coursework.

- English Composition: six semester hours; Students must earn a C or higher
- Quantitative / Logical Reasoning: six semester hours; Students must earn a C or higher.
- Social Sciences: three semester hours
- History: three semester hours
- Ethics / Social Responsibility: three semester hours
- Humanities / Cultural Practice: three semester hours
- Natural Sciences: six semester hours
- Six additional Liberal Studies semester hours selected from Social Sciences, History, Ethics, Humanities, Natural Science, and/or Scholarship In Practice courses. Only one additional course may be selected from the History or Social Science Area. Only one additional course may be selected from the Natural Science Area.

- Six of the semester hours used to satisfy the Liberal Studies Area requirements must be from E-Series courses (IFS prefix). E-Series courses can be found in almost every area of Liberal Studies. Students must earn a C or higher.

Students must complete (or be exempted from with credit) at least six semester hours in English composition. All students shall complete the required English writing courses by the time they have attempted 30 hours, which includes any credit hours earned through acceleration (i.e., AP, IB, Dual Enrollment, etc.) or must show an appropriate exemption, as approved by the Faculty Senate, from six semester hours of composition courses.

Speak with your academic advisor for the specific Quantitative / Logical Reasoning course sequence for your major. Students must complete (or be exempted from with credit) at least six semester hours in quantitative / logical reasoning. Three of those credit hours must be taken from the Department of Mathematics. The other three hours may be in Mathematics, Logic, or Statistics. Students must complete their first quantitative / logical reasoning course by the time they have attempted 30 hours, which includes any credit hours earned through acceleration (i.e., AP, IB, Dual Enrollment, etc.). Students must complete or be registered for their second quantitative / logical reasoning courses by the time they have attempted 40 hours. All six semester hours of the quantitative / logical reasoning requirement should be completed by the time the student earns 52 degree hours.

A list of specific courses that satisfy FSU's Liberal Studies Program can be found in Appendix B; the most up-to-date list of approved courses with course descriptions may be found at <http://liberalstudies.fsu.edu/LiberalStudies.html>.

College Requirements

The college offering your major may also have specific courses that are required of all their students. An example of this is the College of Arts and Sciences' foreign language requirement. You should learn about any College-specific requirements at the "Get to Know Your College" meeting during Orientation.

Major

This is an academic area in which you plan to take a concentration of courses. The size of your major will vary from as little as 30 hours (approximately 10 courses) to as high as 110 hours. Some majors are called limited-access or limited-enrollment which means they may require a certain grade point average, test score, special application, and/or coursework prior to formal admission. There also may be a specific deadline when you must apply for acceptance into the major. Competition for these limited access / limited enrollment programs (usually at the end of the sophomore year) is generally high. Make it a point to know any special admissions requirements or deadlines for your major, and allow adequate time to prepare yourself and plan alternatives.

Minor

Not all degree programs require you to complete a minor. Some not only require a minor, they also dictate which minor you will do. Typically the majors that require more hours either have the minor embedded within the major or do not require a minor at all. Your minor can be an important part of your program and help groom you for specific job fields. Consider your minor as an opportunity to develop knowledge and skills that are not a part of your major.

Electives

Electives are courses you take just for fun or to make yourself more competitive in the job market. The number of elective hours in a degree program will range from 0 to 45. Some students use electives to complete more than one minor or a second major. Research shows that students enrolling in an elective during their first term as a college student report higher levels of satisfaction and success. How you plan to use your electives is a good topic to discuss with your advisor. Some degree programs will ask you to complete all electives during your first two years, so developing a plan on how to use electives is an important early step in advising.

Special Program Requirements

Participation in special programs such as Honors, ROTC, or a Living-Learning Community (LLC) may require you to complete additional courses. You should meet with a representative from your special program during free time at orientation if a meeting is not already a regular part of the orientation program, or contact them prior to the end of Drop/Add in your first semester.

Limited Access Majors

Some majors at FSU require special applications and entrance criteria that must be met prior to the junior year. These are called Limited Access or Limited Enrollment Programs. Limited Access Programs at FSU include: Psychology, Social Work, everything in Business, Computer Science, Economics, most programs in Education, and everything in Music, Dance, and Studio Art. Admission into these programs is based on taking a defined set of courses and earning a defined GPA. Some programs may require an audition or portfolio review. Limited Enrollment Programs may have the same types of admission criteria but differ from Limited Access Programs in that they only admit a specific number of students each year. Limited Enrollment Programs at FSU include: Athletic Training, everything in Communication, everything in Theatre, Early Childhood Education, Elementary Education, Motion Picture Arts, Nursing, and Interior Design. Information on application procedures and deadlines for Limited Access and Enrollment Programs is found by going to the department website.

Not being admitted to the Limited Access Program of your choice does not have to be the end of your career in that field. Most professions have alternative ways of entering the field. For instance, students wishing a career in business may want to look into English with a business minor, retail merchandising and product development, or any of our foreign languages with a concentration in business. Combining any major with a business minor is also an alternative route to a business career. Go to the FSU Career Center to research your chosen profession early in your college career. You may be surprised at the variety of academic directions that lead you to where you want to be.

It's All Academic

Academic Programs and Support

Academic Advising

During Orientation you will meet with an academic advisor before you register for classes. The goals for this meeting are to introduce you to academic advising and provide guidance in selecting appropriate courses for your first semester. The advisor you meet at orientation may or may not be the person you will work with during the year. It is imperative that you find out how to contact your permanent advisor during your first semester.

There are three main providers of academic advising:

- Students who chose a major on arrival at FSU go to their major departments for advising.
- Students who have not indicated an interest in a particular major go to the Advising First Center for Exploratory Students in G002 WJB. Students wavering in their decision may also use this office.
- Students considering changing their major may go to the Advising First Center for Academic Planning in 3200 UCA to discuss their eligibility for various majors.

Students in special programs such as CARE, ROTC, Athletics, and Honors may be required to meet with advisors in these programs instead of, or in addition to, meeting with the major advisor.

Be sure to set up a time to meet with your advisor early in the semester. Some advisors prefer appointments. Others see students on a walk-in basis. Some change methods depending on the time of the term. Find out which your advisor prefers. Don't wait until registration begins, or you may be unprepared for your enrollment appointment.

Meeting with your advisor during your first semester will provide you the first opportunity to talk in depth about your academic goals and begin the development of your long-range plan to graduate. This will also be a good time to discuss your interest in a pre-med or pre-law track. You can also find helpful information at:

<http://undergrad.fsu.edu/Academic-Information/Prelaw-and-Premed-Pre-health>.

Reconnect with your advisor at least once each semester to stay informed and avoid detours during your college career. Your advisor contact information is located in the bottom right of your Student Center page under the dark blue "Advisor" bar. Click "Details" to get advisor contact information or email them directly. You may also use the Advisor Search to locate academic advisors across campus:

http://our.undergrad.fsu.edu/advisor\_search/advisors.php.

Planning Your First Semester Schedule

To simplify the process of picking classes for your first semester, look at the sample schedule on your Academic Map. Go to Appendix B for a list of the Statewide Core and Liberal Studies courses to identify classes that may be of interest to you. Not all classes are offered every semester. Build a list of courses and bring it to advising. Your advisor will help you refine your list based on your interests, the milestones for your major, and course availability.

A normal fall or spring semester schedule includes 14-16 hours. Some freshmen register for the minimum 12 hours to be considered a full-time student during their first term. A lighter first semester load is particularly recommended for freshmen planning to work more than 10-15 hours per week, participate in Marching Chiefs, or become involved in student organizations. Students wishing to register for a 12 hour schedule will need to make up those hours during the summer if they expect to graduate in four years. Summer terms are slightly different. A six week term load should be limited to 6 or 7 hours (half a normal load for half a term). Your financial aid may have higher requirements for academic progress than what is expected of the general FSU undergraduate population. Make sure you are aware of all enrollment and progress requirements for your specific financial aid package. Summer terms are slightly different. A six week term load should be limited to 6 or 7 hours (half a normal load for half a term).

The difficulty of a schedule has more to do with the nature of the courses taken rather than the number of hours. The level of a course does not always indicate the degree of difficulty. A 1000-level course is not necessarily less challenging than a 3000-level. How much you can handle in a semester is one of the most difficult decisions facing both a student and the advisor. Your advisor will work with you to make the best decision for this first semester.

Sample First Term Schedule	English Composition	3 hours
	Quantitative / Logical Reasoning	3 hours
	History, Humanities or Ethics	3 hours
	Natural Science	3 - 4 hours
	Social Science or Elective	3 hours
	PE, FIG, LLC, or Honors Colloquium	1 hour

Your major may require a first-term schedule that differs considerably from the sample. To view your major's sample schedule found on the Academic Map, visit the Academic Program Guide – www.academic-guide.fsu.edu select the "M" next to your major. Your major may require you to take more than one course from a particular Statewide Core or Liberal Studies area during the first semester such as two Natural Sciences or two Quantitative / Logical Reasoning courses. Only students with strong writing skills should take more than one History, Humanities or Ethics course in addition to English Composition.

Freshman Interest Groups - FIGs

Freshman Interest Groups are designed for students who are not participating in a Living-Learning program and are only available in the fall. FIGs provide a way for new students to connect with a group of students sharing similar interests. Registering for a FIG will place you and your fellow FIG participants in a set of classes that have a theme such as business or communication. Some classes will contain only FIG members while others have other students in addition to the FIG participants. The FIG colloquium is an opportunity for you and the other students in your FIG to meet and discuss the academic ideas generated in the FIG and other Liberal Studies classes. A detailed list of the FIG offerings can be found in Appendix C at the back of this book.

Living-Learning Communities - LLCs

A Living-Learning Community (LLC) is a group of first-year students who share a common interest, live together in a campus residence hall, take one or more classes together, and participate in activities related to the LLC theme as designed by a professor who works with the community. Sometimes the common interest is a major, but three of the seven LLCs are open to any first-year student. Students must submit an application and be selected to participate in an LLC. Appendix D contains a list of the seven LLCs, related course registration information, and the email address for each faculty director.

Foreign Language through Testing

Many majors require completion of a foreign language through the intermediate level. You may gain up to 12 hours of college credit towards this requirement based on earlier work in high school or elsewhere through AP, CLEP or other tests in French, German, and Spanish. The Classics Department offers a Latin exam for credit.

To receive credit, you must take the test before you enroll in any college level course for the language. If you have mastery of a language for which no exam is available, contact the academic advisor in 364 Diffenbaugh, or call 644-2606 to set up an alternative means of certifying competency in that language.

A mandatory (no cost) placement test is required for all students who took French, German, or Spanish in high school and plan to continue the language at the college level. Contact FSU Assessment and Testing (644-3017) to arrange testing. No college credit is granted through this test. Students who wish to continue in a different foreign language should contact an advisor in Modern Languages (644-3728) for proper placement.

ALEKS

The ALEKS math placement test is an online, skill-based assessment that assists the FSU Math Department in placing students in the appropriate math course during their first semester at FSU. All incoming Freshman students who intend to register for Analytic Trigonometry (MAC 1114), Pre-Calculus Algebra (MAC 1140), Calculus with Analytic Geometry I (MAC 2311), Calculus with Analytic Geometry II (MAC 2312) or Calculus for Business (MAC 2233) as their first mathematics course at FSU (in their first semester or subsequent semesters) will be required to take the ALEKS placement exam, regardless of SAT/ACT scores, AP/IB/AICE/CLEP scores, or incoming credit. Detailed information about taking the ALEKS placement exam can be found on the Math Department's website at <http://www.math.fsu.edu/~bellenot/ALEKS/>. If you have additional questions regarding the ALEKS placement exam, please contact the academic advisor in the Math Department at advisor@math.fsu.edu.

Registering for Classes

- Once you register, you may continue to access the system and modify your schedule for the remainder of the enrollment period. Registration DOES close. Visit the FSU Academic Calendar for Important dates and deadlines: Academic Calendar - http://registrar.fsu.edu/dir\_class/acad\_calendar.html.
- The beginning of the semester includes a Drop / Add period that lasts until the end of the 4th day of classes.
- You are not required to pay for courses dropped prior to the end of Drop / Add. You must pay all course fees unless you officially cancel your entire enrollment by the end of the fifth day of classes.
- You must enroll in a minimum of 12 hours in a fall or spring semester to be considered a full-time student.
- Confirm your major is correct so you will be able to register for classes required for that major.
- Some class sections may be reserved for certain populations of students, such as upper-division students, or students in special programs like Honors, CARE, LLC, or Distance Learning. To determine if a specific class section

Registration Holds

Go to the "My Tasks" section of myFSU Portal – my.fsu.edu to check for Registration Holds and To-Do List items well in advance of your enrollment appointment. A hold will prohibit future registration, but you will remain enrolled in all of your current courses.

My Tasks ⓘ
[+]	Holds (0 items)
[+]	To Do List (0 items)

You can have your registration stopped for different reasons, including:

- Student Business Services (A1500 University Center) may hold your registration if you owe money to the University or if you are delinquent on your student loans.
- Your dean may hold your registration if specific requirements have not been met. Undergraduate Studies will hold your registration for not enrolling in English Composition and Quantitative / Logical Reasoning courses at the appropriate times.
- Your registration will be held if you are off-course in your major and have failed to reach required map milestones. Contact your advisor. Some deans hold your registration if you haven't met with your advisor.
- The Health and Wellness Center may hold your registration if you have not completed the required insurance documentation.
- The Admissions Office may hold your registration if they have not received your final transcript(s).
- The Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities may hold your registration if specific requirements of the Judicial Office have not been met.

The First Day of Class

FSU has mandatory first day attendance, which means ALL courses require students to attend the first day of class. Failure to attend will result in students being removed from the class roster. You must contact the professor prior to class if you are unable to attend the first day. If you miss a class, you must verify that the course has been dropped or risk being dropped at a later date and charged for the course.

On the first day of class the professor usually goes over the course syllabus in detail and explains the expectations of the course. The syllabus is your contract with the professor, so it's very important to make sure you understand the rules and requirements for each of your courses. Review your test and assignment due dates across all courses to identify periods of increased academic pressure. Be aware that a class with a lower course number is not necessarily less demanding than one with an upper level number.

Dropping, Adding, or Swapping a Class

You may add a class or swap sections on a space available basis through the end of the fourth day of classes. You will have to pay the fee for any class on your schedule at the end of the fourth day. You may still drop a class until the end of the seventh week of classes provided you still have at least 12 hours left after dropping the course, but you will be charged tuition fees. Students on Bright Futures must return Bright Futures money for all courses dropped after the end of the fourth day. Please note: courses dropped after the 4th day of class will be counted in the Excess Credit hour counter. The deadline is adjusted for shorter summer terms. You may not drop English Composition, a lower-level math class, or any required preparatory classes.

A cumulative maximum of two courses may be dropped between the eighth and twelfth week of classes (see academic calendar for dates in summer terms) during the semesters in which you have earned fewer than sixty hours of college credit. Tuition charges will remain. Approval by your academic dean is required. Courses dropped during this period will appear on your transcript with the notation "W."

Under extraordinary circumstances, you may be allowed to drop a class after the first week and/or beyond the limit on late drops with your academic dean's special approval. These circumstances may typically include: documented medical condition that has impeded your ability to meet course requirements, verified family crises/extraordinary circumstances, or death in the immediate family. You must document that you were passing the course prior to the onset of the situation. Your dean will not allow you to drop a class merely because you've changed your major or because you're not doing well in the class. Medical/mental health course drops that have been recommended for approval by the Health and Wellness Center or the Student Counseling Center may include a refund of fees.

Nole Call

During the Nole Call process, Advising First advisors contact each of the freshmen in their major(s) to come in for a Nole Call meeting during the 2nd-6th weeks of the fall semester. The main purpose of the Nole Call is for academic advisors to begin building relationships with the new students in their majors and to set the tone/expectations for future advising sessions. In addition, these meetings provide an opportunity for advisors to address concerns or issues the students may be having during their first six weeks of being a new student on FSU's campus.

Getting Your Grades

Grades are available by the Wednesday after the end of finals. Check your official grades in myFSU Portal under "My Courses", or Student Central by selecting "Grades" from the drop-down menu under the dark blue Academics toolbar. If you are unable to view your grades, they may be withheld because you owe the University money. Do not rely on Blackboard to determine your final grade. Your grade in Blackboard is unofficial. If you access your official grades and don't see the grade you expected in a particular class, then contact your professor. Errors in grade posting are best cleared up as soon as possible.

"NG" (No Grade Assigned) and "I" (Incomplete) Grades

Contact your instructor immediately to complete the missing work as early as possible during your next term at FSU. Do not re-register for the class. Once you complete the work, your professor will submit a grade change to assign you a regular letter grade. The "I" or "NG" may expire and count as an "F" in your GPA if you re-register for the class or don't finish the work by the end of your next term of enrollment.

Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory Grades (S/U)

Students may choose to take a course on a satisfactory/unsatisfactory grading scale if the course is taken as an elective or to meet a foreign language graduation requirement for some majors. Students should discuss this option with their academic advisor and be sure to complete the required paperwork by the end of the seventh week of classes.

Calculating Your FSU and Combined GPA

You must maintain a "C" grade point average (2.0) or better to remain in good academic standing at FSU. Here's how you figure out your GPA:

A number value is assigned to each letter grade. These numbers are called grade points. For each hour of “A” you accumulate four grade points; a “B” carries three grade points; a “C” carries two; a “D” carries one; and an “F” none. A plus (+) grade adds .25 to the grade point total. For example, a “B+” carries 3.25 grade points. A minus (-) grade subtracts .25 grade points. A grade of “B-” carries 2.75 grade points.

A three hour course in which you earn an “A” would give you a total of 12 grade points (three hours times 4 grade points) while a three hour course with a “D” grade would only give you 3 grade points (three hours times 1 grade point).

To find out your FSU GPA, add up all your graded FSU hours and divide them into your total number of grade points. Satisfactory-Unsatisfactory (“S-U”), “I,” or “NG” grades, exemption credit, and transfer work are not used to compute your FSU GPA. Both grades count in your GPA if you re-take a course.

The following example illustrates calculation of a GPA.

Course	Hours	Grade		Grade Points
EAL1101	3	C+	(3 X 2.25)	6.75
SZP1000	3	B	(3 X 3)	9
MLQ1102	3	D-	(3 X .75)	2.25
APG1000	3	A	(3 X 4)	12
APR1111	1	F	(1 X 0)	0
Total Hours = 13		Total Grade Points =		30

Divide 13 hours into 30 grade points. This student’s GPA for the term is 2.307, or slightly above a “C+”.

Every student also has an Overall, or Combined GPA, which is calculated using all graded college-level courses regardless of where the credit was earned. All courses taken at FSU, college-level courses taken at another institution, and college-level courses taken as dual enrollment courses while in high school count in the Overall / Combined GPA. Graduate schools, law schools, medical schools, limited access programs, academic honor societies, and GPA for earning degrees of distinction upon graduation all use the Overall / Combined GPA in their decisions.

Academic Standing

The final grades you earn in your courses taken at FSU determine your academic standing at FSU. Students who make very good grades can be recognized by being on the Dean’s List, being eligible for the Honors in the Major program, having the best opportunities to enter limited access majors, and graduating from college with degrees of distinction. These successes lead to expanded job opportunities after graduation and make you a more desirable candidate for graduate and professional schools. Your academic standing is based on your FSU GPA.

Dean’s List / President’s List

Any student who is registered for at least 12 graded hours of coursework is eligible for the Dean’s List. The required grade point average is 3.5 for all colleges and schools for any given term. Students earning a perfect 4.0 GPA are placed on the President’s List.

Progress Toward Degree

Some majors, most often in the sciences, are not limited access but have criteria for satisfactory progress toward degree. This will typically include a specified GPA in introductory or major courses and/or a limit on the number of low grades in these courses. Many programs restrict your ability to register for higher-level courses until you have completed a defined set of introductory courses. This is also designed to ensure you do not register for a course without the foundation of knowledge required to be successful.

The Retention Table

Students must perform academically or they will be dismissed from FSU. This decision is based on your FSU GPA and the total number of hours you have attempted. Although AP, IB, CLEP, AICE credit, and courses taken from other institutions do not count in your FSU GPA, they do count as attempted hours. Failed courses will also count as attempted hours. The following table defines the criteria for being placed on Warning, Probation, and Dismissal.

Attempted Hours	Warning GPA Range	Probation GPA Range
1 – 15	1.5 – 1.999	Less than 1.5
16 – 30	1.75 – 1.999	Less than 1.75
31 or more		Less than 2.0
Dismissal	Failure to remove Probation by end of next term

Academic Warning

A student will be placed on Warning if the FSU GPA is slightly below a 2.0 and the student has less than 30 attempted hours. Only freshmen with less than 30 hours can be placed on Warning.

Academic Probation

Academic Probation indicates the student is in danger of being dismissed from FSU at the end of the semester. Be aware that the more hours accumulated, the higher the grades needed to raise the FSU GPA.

Academic Dismissal

A student who fails to get off Probation after one semester will be dismissed from FSU. Dismissal from FSU does not carry a time limit. Students are dismissed forever unless they do one of the following:

Freshmen and sophomores can earn an Associate in Arts from an accredited Florida post-secondary institution, and reapply to FSU. Contact Undergraduate Studies prior to attempting this option at a non-Florida institution.

The dean might reinstate a student for the next term, but only if there is a compelling reason to believe the student's academic performance will improve enough to bring the GPA up to a 2.0 in one semester. Students are not eligible for readmission after a second dismissal.

With dean's approval, students may take State University System of Florida Flexible Learning courses until enough "A" and "B" grades have been earned to achieve a 2.0. The grades will count in computing the GPA, and will count toward the hours required for graduation.

Mapping

Each major has developed an academic map that should be provided to you at orientation. This map includes a sample schedule to illustrate one of the many ways to satisfy all requirements in four years. More important are the milestones identified for each major. Milestones are courses and/or GPAs that must be achieved by specified points within your college career. Failure to achieve a milestone identifies you as off-course for your major, places a hold on your registration, and requires you to meet with an advisor. Failure to get back on-course the next semester will result in a hold on your registration and removal from your current major.

Students are only permitted to change into a major if they are on-course for the new major. To see more information about milestones for majors at FSU go to: Undergraduate Academic Program Guide – www.academic-guide.fsu.edu.

Academic Success Course Mandate

Students who earn less than a 2.0 in their first semester at FSU or who must repeat a required college-preparatory course will be mandated to enroll in SLS1122, Strategies for Academic Success. This is a one-hour graded course designed to help students develop the needed study skills to return to good academic standing. Students will be administratively enrolled in the course during the following semester and are responsible for all tuition, fees, and textbook/supplies.

It's All Academic

Additional Resources and Opportunities

For more information about ACE, visit <http://ace.fsu.edu/>.

Tutoring Services

Free tutoring is available for a wide range of courses and topics at Florida State University including help in those courses typically perceived as particularly rigorous. Tutoring provides targeted content review outside of the classroom for any enrolled student. Tutors will not do your work for you. Your tutoring options include:

ACE Learning Studio – In Johnston Ground (ground floor of WJB), the ACE Learning Studio provides tutoring in a large number of subject areas from 10am to 10pm Monday through Thursday, 10am to 5pm Friday, and 5pm to 10pm Sunday. Appointments are typically 50 minutes in length and can be made within 'Secure Apps' in Blackboard. Call (850) 645-9151 for more information.

Learning District – Sponsored by the University Libraries, the Learning District is a drop-in tutoring service for students during later evening hours, from 8pm to 1am in Strozier Library, that provides assistance in a variety of subject areas. Tutoring is also available in Dirac Library during select hours.

Reading - Writing Center – From the Department of English in 222C Williams, RWC offers individualized instruction in composition and reading through one-on-one tutoring and small group workshops. Help from the RWC is also available in Johnston Ground and Strozier Library during select hours.

Math Studio – A part of the ACE Learning Studio, the Math Studio provides walk-in math tutoring in many introductory and intermediate math courses. Open 10am to 10pm Monday through Thursday, 10am to 5pm Friday, and 5pm to 10pm Sunday, in Johnston Ground (ground floor of WJB).

Biology - The Biology Study Centers are staffed by teaching assistants in the courses. The Biology Majors Study Center, located in 1054 King Life Sciences Building, is for students enrolled in BSC2010 and BSC2011 (M-F 8:30-4:30). The Biology Non-Majors Study Center, located in 425 Carothers, serves students enrolled in BSC1005 and BSC1005L (check course websites for tutor hours).

For more information about free tutoring, visit <http://ace.fsu.edu/>.

Strozier Library

The main library, located on the north end of Landis Green, provides a variety of services for undergraduates including individualized consulting on all research papers or projects. You may also email, call, or visit with the person assigned to your academic area whenever you have questions about finding data or publications. Go to <http://www.lib.fsu.edu/> for a complete listing of FSU libraries and services to help you get started.

Testing and Education Resource Center (TERC)

The Testing & Education Resource Center (TERC) provides study guides and timed practice tests for the GRE, LSAT, GMAT, MCAT, and MAT. This resource is offered through a subscription service provided by University Libraries. It can be accessed by FSU students through the Research Tab, "Find a Database" link on the library website or go directly to www.lib.fsu.edu/get/terc. From the main page, choose "Graduate School Tools" tab and then the test for which you are preparing. For information on graduate/professional school entrance exam workshops, visit the ACE website at <http://ace.fsu.edu/>.

Forming a Study Group

Research has shown that students who participate in study groups perform better than students who study alone. This is particularly true in introductory science and math courses. Consider forming a study group for these courses even if you feel confident in your ability to master the subject. If you live on campus, talk to your RA about setting up groups within your floor or building. Courses using Blackboard will have a link for setting up study groups. You may also speak with your instructor about making an announcement for students interested in participating in a study group to meet before or after class to get organized. Form study groups early in the semester and continue to meet on a weekly basis for the duration of the course.

Improving your Marketability

It is necessary that you understand the importance of your grade point average (GPA) and tracking your academic progress. While grades are very important, they are only one aspect of an intellectual life. There are many different learning opportunities available outside the classroom as well. You should consider becoming involved in one or more of the student clubs and organizations on campus, participate in an internship, conduct research or volunteer. It is through these experiences that you will begin to apply the skills developed in the classroom to a real-life setting. Some employers and graduate programs are looking only for the very brightest students. The vast majority of employers are more interested in a well-rounded person with a variety of experiences. Balance your excellence in the classroom with equal excellence in leadership, cultural activities, work, and recreation.

Student Perceptions of Courses and Instructors (SPCI)

Toward the end of each semester you will be asked to evaluate your instructors. FSU takes these results very seriously and uses them in evaluations of faculty and in assignments of teaching duties. Please use this opportunity to share your insights into the performance of our teaching personnel. SPCI provides a more complete picture of faculty classroom performance than data found on other non-FSU-sponsored feedback sites because all students evaluate the professor. You may access SPCI results by going to: <http://java.odl.fsu.edu/sussai2/>.

Center for Undergraduate Research and Academic Engagement (CRE)

Each year, undergraduate students--from every major--conduct research and creative projects with faculty members, travel to intern in developing countries around the world, and launch new organizations to address social problems. All of these opportunities, and more, are available through the CRE. CRE's signature programs include:

- The Undergraduate Research Opportunity Program (UROP), which helps students partner with our excellent faculty and doctoral students as research assistants, receive mentorship and training in a colloquium course, and present their contributions in the Annual Research Symposium. Research projects span the disciplines: from investigating possible treatments for cancer, to analyzing voting behaviors, to writing poetry and composing music.
- The Global Scholars program, which helps students secure summer internships at nonprofit organizations in developing countries around the world. Students live with local families and intern in countries like India, Peru, and Uganda.
- Launch FSU, which serves as FSU's on-campus social enterprise accelerator. Launch FSU helps students launch nonprofit and for-profit organizations that address challenges facing communities, such as homelessness, educational inequality, and healthcare access.

Students interested in these opportunities should connect with the Center for Undergraduate Research and Academic Engagement: <http://cre.fsu.edu/>.

Lateral Admission into the Liberal Studies Honors Program

Incoming freshmen students who were not admitted to the University Honors Program through the standard admission process may become eligible for lateral admission after their first fall semester at FSU. Eligibility for lateral admission is based on the student's fall term GPA. Students must be enrolled for a minimum of 12 hours of graded coursework to qualify and join the Honors Program in the spring semester. Students who are admitted laterally are held to the same program requirements as students admitted by standard admission. For information about the current lateral admission criteria, contact the Honors Program Office or visit <http://honors.fsu.edu/admissions.html>.

Honors in the Major

Honors in the Major provides talented students the opportunity to design and conduct original research or creative activity, develop relationships with faculty, prepare for graduate school, and receive recognition on their transcripts. It is the only way to graduate "With Honors" from Florida State University.

Honors in the Major students complete a written thesis project based on research done in their major area of study. They work under the guidance of at least three faculty members and defend the thesis orally before their faculty committee. During the time students complete the thesis, they register for 6-9 hours of 4000-level thesis credit. Students who have completed and successfully defended their projects graduate "With Honors" in their major.

The Honors in the Major program is open to undergraduates who have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.20 and at least 60 hours of college credit, with at least two full terms before their anticipated graduation date. For information about Honors admission or Honors in the Major, e-mail the Honors Office at honors@fsu.edu or call 644-1841.

Office of National Fellowships

The Office of National Fellowships offers comprehensive services to help students gain a competitive edge in the application process for nationally competitive fellowships and scholarships such as the Rhodes, Marshall, Truman, Goldwater, and Fulbright scholarships. The office assists students in pursuing opportunities for enrichment by providing information and support throughout the fellowship application process. For more information, visit the Office of National Fellowships located in Suite 3002, Honors, Scholars and Fellows House, or refer to <http://onf.fsu.edu/>.

Scholastic & Leadership / Scholastic Honor Societies

FSU recognizes several University-wide Honor societies. To be University-recognized, the organization has submitted an application outlining the admission requirements and financial operations. The societies listed on the following page are scholastic and leadership/scholastic societies. You may be contacted by other groups that, although not University-recognized, are affiliated with FSU as a student club. Others may not be affiliated with FSU in any way. To see the full list of university-recognized societies go to: Scholastic and Leadership / Scholastic Honor Societies - <http://honorsocieties.fsu.edu/>.

Freshman Interest Groups (FIGS)

The following table is the Freshman Interest Group Offerings for Fall 2015. Select a topic or group of courses that are of interest to you and consistent with the requirements of your major. You may drop a course from your FIG cluster due to duplicate credit earned through testing or dual enrollment, if a minimum of two courses and the colloquium remain after the course is dropped. Once your credit is posted to your permanent record, contact Alice Wright at 850-644-2740 or acwright2@fsu.edu to request an adjustment to your cluster.

To add a FIG to your schedule: Go to Course Search and enter Course Subject as HUM and Course Number as 1920. Select the section from the lists in this appendix, add to your cart (be certain you are in the ENROLL tab) "Proceed to Step 2" and then "Finish Enrolling."

What is the FIG Colloquium? One of the most significant advantages to registering for a FIG is the HUM 1920 FIG Colloquium. This course is a seminar structured class designed to provide students with a set of experiences that will introduce them to the academic culture at Florida State University. It is not a study hall or tutoring session, but many of the class sessions are designed to assist students reach their educational and academic goals.
