

Application for Butchikas Foundation Scholarship

Directions: The Butchikas Foundation Scholarship is a need-based scholarship that helps cover the costs of consultations, parent training, assessments, one-on-one therapy and writing treatment plans. Percentage of costs covered will be determined by financial need, parental involvement, and necessity of services for the child.

Families will be required to pay for a portion of the services they receive in the form of a monthly co-pay as determined by financial hardship. All families who would like to receive services from FSU-ECAP are encouraged to apply for this scholarship. Please fill out the following form and return it to:

FSU ECAP
4750 Collegiate Drive
Panama City, FL 32405

You must read and acknowledge the guidelines on page 2. If you have any questions, please contact us at 850-770-2241 or fsuecap@fsu.edu.

When applying for the Butchikas Scholarship, applicants acknowledge the following:

- To obtain and hold the Butchikas Foundation Scholarship, parents agree to arrive on time to sessions, attend a minimum of one parent training per month, and collect assigned data.
- Failure to participate in sessions and regular parent training meetings will result in ineligibility for this scholarship.
- As behavior analysts, we strive to equip the family/caregivers with the necessary skills to effectively teach the client in their natural environment.
- This scholarship is designed to be a financial starting point until families can acquire other funding sources or insurance coverage for behavior analytic services.
- Families who acquire health insurance that is eligible for reimbursement of services are not eligible for the scholarship and must work to transfer services to their insurance policy within 30 days at which point the scholarship will no longer cover services.
- Families agree to pay a pre-determined portion of their services in the form of a monthly co-pay.
- Failure to submit financial documents (w-2, tax information, pay stubs, etc.) is considered an incomplete application and will not be processed.
